New York Stock Market

New York, April 15 .- Quotations of stocks were again scaled down to-day. It was a trader's market, and traders were bearish. Losses of 1 to 2 points were sustained by a long list of stocks, including such market leaders as Reading, Union Pacific and Amalgamated. The higher prices for Americans in London before the open-ing here were ignored, and initial quo-Americans in London before the opening here were ignored, and initial quotations were irregular. The list resisted the effect of bear selling for a time, and then broke sharply. Later the market rallied, but still lower prices were recorded before the close. The market was influenced unfavorably by further severe declines among the newer industrials and by heaviness of some of the standard investment stocks and bonds. New low prices were established by Pennsylvania, New York Central, Rumely, Mexican Petroleum and California Petroleum. New York Central's heaviness leum. New York Central's heaviness was associated with a report that the company was to put out a large note issue. The opinion was expressed that the success of the recent offerings of securities will, have a large bearing upon the outlook for the market.

The decline of old-established bonds since the offering of new issues at higher figures has tended to restrict investment buying, and it was regard-investment buying, and it was regardleum. New York Central's heaviness investment buying, and it was regarded as probable that the degree of favor with which the new Issues were received will serve as an index to in-bonds at a fraction below the sub-scription price.

Rankers said that Western and Southern banks were drawing down their New York reserves. The effect was not reflected in the local money vestment conditions. Some signifi-cance was attached to a sale of the new St. Paul 4 1-2 general mortgage

ANSWER

Not one penny more than would be allowed to an individual acting in same capacity-indeed, it usually costs less.

Indimation to Officials.
[By Associated Press.]
Washington, April 15.—Without offending the people of California by any official interference with their legislative proceedings, the President and his Secretary of State unofficially conveyed to certain influential persons conveyed to certain influential persons in California the hope that the projected legislation will not be permitted to take a form that would justify the Japanese government in asserting that it constituted a breach of the treaty obligations of the United States. The purpose of to-day's conferences, it is understood, was to accertain whether the Senate bill as amended still is objectionable to Japan, and, if so, in what respect. and, if so, in what respect.

The ambassador is said to have in-

[By Associated Press.] Tokyo, April 15.—Japanese official circles are now inclined to the belief that nothing they can do will have any effect in averting the projected land ownership legislation of Califorria. Application will be made to the Federal government of the United States, however, for an extension of naturalization rights to the Japanese. Otherwise, the bill, it is claimed, will be a discrimination against Japan.

IN ALL PUBLIC SCHOOLS" This May Be One of Slogans of Progressives in Next New York Campaign. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

New York, April 15.—"Cost price lunches in all public schools" will be one of the slogans of the Progressives in the next municipal empaign, Colonel Theodore Rooseveit intimated this evening, after lunching in one of the seven schools now providing this convenience for pupils. The ment cost him 2 cents. "I feel that we ought, by law, to get every State to provide that to get every State to provide that the school boards should furnish meals to the children at not less than the cost price of the raw ma-terial, and I hope that this will be made a plank of the Progressive municipal platform in the fall," said Colonel Roosevelt.

The tour of the schools was made by him under the guidance of Mrs. Ernest Poole, wife of the author-playwright. The former President had his lunch at public school No.

95, at Varick and Houston Streets.

It consisted of a cup of bean soup for I cent and an egg sandwich for for 1 cent and an egg sandwich for the same price.

"One annieur Vanderbitt had a 7-cent lunch," said Colonel Rooseveit, "including three plates of saind at a cent each. Some of the boys said they used to get their lunch out of pushearts, a green pickle for a cent and a stick of candy for the other cent. The cost price lunches are necessary to keep the children well and to get the best out of the schools."

Washington, April 15.—Final action upon a currency reform bill at the present session of Congress is not considered probable by members of the Senate committee on Banking and Currency, Plans for the preparation of legislation were outlined briefly to day at a meeting of the Democratic members of the committee, but the actual preparation of a bill to be presented to Congress will not be completed for some time.

Senator Owen will introduce a resolution as into the currency problem in detail, however, and it will be some time be-fore he is ready to devote his full attention to it. In the meantime the House and Senate drafts of prospective legislation will be tentatively rounded out, and efforts made to agree upon fundamen-tal steps that shall characterize the reanodeling of the nation's financial sys-tem. Senator Owen said to-day that the bill, when finally presented to the Senate, would come as a committee bill. Several measures now before the committee, including the Hitchcock, Weeks and Jones bills, will be given consideration.

While Democratic members only par-white Democratic members only par-ticipated in to-day's conference, Re-publican members of the Senate com-mittee expect to be consulted fully in the preparation of financial legislation and that the subject will be treated in nonpartisan manner. The House com-mittee has not yet been organized but it is expected that Representative Glass will be its chairman.
